Division of Davao de Oro

Dear Ma'am Epe,

Golden greetings!

The Province of Davao de Oro, through the Provincial Administrator's Office – Tourism Division, is celebrating World Tourism Month 2024 with the theme, "Tourism and Peace," throughout September. This year's celebration highlights tourism's potential as a catalyst for peace, reconciliation, social justice, economic growth, and cultural understanding. Tourism's ability to unite people in harmonious settings makes it a powerful tool for fostering dialogue and building bridges. By investing in youth, promoting innovation, and adopting peace-sensitive practices, tourism can drive positive change worldwide, particularly in our province.

As part of our celebration, we have lined up activities focused on youth empowerment and marine conservation:

- Community Tour Guiding Training
September 9-10, 2024 | Maragusan, Davao de Oro
- Mabini Eco-Dive Educational Caravan
September 23, 2024 | Nabunturan, Davao de Oro
- Mabini Eco-Dive and Biodiversity Appreciation
September 24, 2024 | Pindasan, Mabini, Davao de Oro
- Maragusan Tour Guiding Competition
September 26, 2024 | Maragusan, Davao de Oro

Regarding this, we kindly request your permission to allow schools offering tour guiding modules to participate in the Community Tour Guiding Training, with a maximum of ten (10) participants per school. Additionally, we seek your approval to visit schools for the Mabini Eco-Dive Educational Caravan and to invite them to the Mabini Eco-Dive and Biodiversity Appreciation. Your assistance in informing all concerned schools would be greatly appreciated.

Should you have inquiries and concerns, you may contact Ms. Christine T. Dompdor at 0908-888-8038 or by email at turismodavaodeoro@gmail.com.

Thank you, and God bless!

Yours respectfully,

DOROTHY P. MONTEJO-GONZAGA
Governor
